wired Welsh from his quarters at the Tulane club, New Orieans, after being informed by the writes that the Battler had recognized his challenge.

"I have wired to Coffroth as follows:
"I am willing to fight Nelson for 60 per cent of the gross receipts, same to be split any way to suit Nesson. Want third interest in the moving pictures.
"Will bet Nelson $5.00 on the side for a Z-round fight or give him side bet of $2.000 for a 40-round contest. Have posted $1.000 with the Times-Democrathere."

With both Welsh and Nelson with both Welsh and Nelson willing to do business, and with Coffroth holding the reins, it ought to prove a compara-tively easy task to get the two light-weights together inside the next few bedgie Keare.

The Clinches-Second Meeting

London, Feb. 22.—Johnny Summers, the English pugilist, tonight received the lectsion over Jimmy Britt in a 20-round bout. The fight was held before the Na tional Sporting club, and a big crowd was present, there being great interest in the bout owing to the lively fight these men put up last November, On that occasion, the go was a 10-round affair, and Britt was the victor. Tonight Summers got the decision on points.

Both Summers and Britt had trained fore. During the early stages Britt did most of the leading, apparently starting out with a view of securing a kneckeut. He made the mistake, however, of hold-ing in clinches more than is usual in England, and came in for much adverse criticism and several warnings from Eu-gene Corri, who officiated as referee. Britt also had the misfortune to slip twice to the floor when engaged in live-judges, and these falls were almost as effective in taking the speed out of him as though they had resulted from a swing.
